Fund manager commentary

30 September 2019

Stockmarket performance was mixed in the third quarter of 2019. Fears about the global economy led to a setback for stockmarkets in August, whilst government bonds in many countries rallied strongly. Global manufacturing is suffering as the US-China trade war weighs on factories around the world.

The UK stockmarket finished the period almost flat. Parliamentary wrangling over Brexit persisted, shares performed well when the likelihood of the UK leaving the European Union without a deal seemed to recede. European markets made modest gains. US stockmarkets started the quarter positively, major indices hit record highs in July. Markets then fell in August when the trade conflict re-erupted, before recovering in September. In Japan, investor sentiment was swayed by the deteriorating geopolitical climate and the potential impact of a trade war between the US and China. Within Pacific Basin ex Japan share prices tumbled in August when US President Donald Trump introduced new tariffs on Chinese goods.

U.K. commercial property recorded a small positive total return in July and August, there is sharp contrast between Offices and Industrial (where capital values have risen) and Retail (where capital values have declined substantially this year). UK government bonds (gilts) & corporate bonds delivered solid returns in the third quarter of 2019. Slower economic growth and central bank stimulus activity were key themes in global bond markets.

The M&G Treasury & Investment Office (T&IO) outlook remains broadly constructive however global economic growth is likely to be lower in 2019.

The figures are intended only to demonstrate performance history of the fund over the period shown. They include a representative fund charge of 0.65% pa and any additional investment expenses. They take no account of product or advice charges.

The application of charges will impact the overall performance. Please also note that our charges may vary in the future and may be higher than they are now. Fund Performance is based upon the movement of the daily price and is shown as total return in the fund’s currency of denomination with gross income reinvested. The value of your investment can go down as well as up so you might get back less than you put in. Performance is shown on a bid to bid price basis.

These funds are available through our Prudential International Investment Bond and International Prudence Bond. Investments in the PruFund Range of Funds are backed by assets in the Long-Term Fund of The Prudential Assurance Company Ltd, through a reinsurance agreement.

These funds aim to protect investors against some of the ups and downs of investment performance using “smoothing” mechanisms. Please refer to “Your guide to investing in the PruFund Range of Funds” for more information.

Where the PruFund Protected Growth (US Dollar) Fund is available, it includes a guarantee. This means that on the Guarantee Date your fund will have a value equal to at least the value of the fund holding at the start of the guarantee period, after a proportional reduction for any regular or one-off withdrawals. Where the fund’s available, there’s a charge for the guarantee; please see “The PruFund Range of Funds: Guarantee options” for more information.

For any fund, there may be a delay in buying, selling or switching of units. These delays will only apply in exceptional circumstances and if this applies to you, we will let you know. For more information, please refer to your Contract Conditions, which you can get from your Financial Adviser.
